

Re-invent turning with Sandvik Coromant

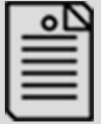

Innovation contest 2018

This innovation contest is for all those innovative minds who want to make a difference around turning using latest technology like – PrimeTurning™.

Rules and Guidelines : governing the contest

1. Re-invent turning innovation contest starts from 11 June and last date for submission is 5 August, 2018
2. Success story should be related to turning application in the manufacturing set up and the data provided should be real and reliable
3. The participation should be on the organization level and not on individual level
4. The organizations can submit the turning success story showing innovation done around turning application using PrimeTurning™ method
5. To know more about the products to be used for the contest, please click here - www.sandvik.coromant.com/in
6. Some of the areas which can be considered for the innovation;
 - ⇒ Applying new smart way of machining
 - ⇒ Cycle time reduction and tool life improvement
 - ⇒ Total cost or cost per component reduction
7. The qualification criterion is to fill up all the areas mentioned in the application form as per the specified format, we also recommend following the guideline document, "how to write the application form" available on the portal

Terms and Conditions

1. Overview of the winning success story must be allowed to be published with the name of the company and the winners (overview may contain concepts and broad contours of the project without disclosing confidential information)
2. Entries will be judged by an independent committee of experienced and eminent professionals in the manufacturing industry whose decision will be final
3. Sandvik Coromant will not have any role in judging of entries. The jury reserves the right to accept or reject an entry without assigning any reasons thereof. Therefore, Sandvik Coromant is not obliged to provide reasons for rejection
4. Project Leader plus one member of the team, nominated by the Project Leader on the application form will get to attend the educational tour to Sandvik Coromant headquarters at Sandviken in Sweden
5. Duly filled application form should be emailed to coromantindia.communications@sandvik.com on or before 5 August, 2018
6. Sandvik Coromant reserves all the right of the final explanation of the contest

